Testimonials for Jessica Gendron

- Ginny and Jessica were so fantastic, their sessions were my favorite! A true inspiration, I can't wait to bring that energy back to my chapter. I think they both very motivating while keeping the audience entertained. I think they respectively started and ended COTs well. Made us rethink our recruitment styles. Both of the presenters were extremely energetic, charismatic, and gave me a lot of ideas to incorporate as an advisor and with my profession. (12)
- Jessica Gendron & her Phired Up & Dynamic Recruitment Sessions! She was enthusiastic and transformational I would love to see her again/have her speak at my chapter/she was. She really helped the chapter members to see that recruitment is all about PNM's. (37)
- She has such a passion and a natural talent for speaking about sorority life and all that it encompasses. Her fresh ideas and challenging words made me excited about recruitment and gave me a brighter outlook on it.
- She was enthusiastic and inspiring. She had a funny spin on - with both of these speakers I thought it was great to bring in non-Sigma Kappas for us to be able to see that being a part of a Sigma Kappa is more than just our national organization Recruitment but helped us to remember basic ideas that we may have previously been struggling with.
- She was enthusiastic, knowledgeable, and provided information that could be used from a variety of chapters with different characteristics.
- Amazing! She kept the audience engaged and laughing, had some great points which were conveyed in an easy manner, very knowledgeable. Would love for her to speak at my chapter. (11)
- Bring her back because she made the recruitment speech interesting and you never wanted it to end.
- She was an amazing inspirational and moving speaker.
- They were very interesting and kept me awake. I wasn't bored by their programs.
- Very effective, good use of humor, related well to students
- Very good speakers with messages I wish every member of all our chapters could hear.
- She did an excellent job putting recruitment into perspective and reminding what it was like for us before we were Greek.
- I thought that she was an amazing example of sorority women with fabulous messages to share. I felt like these women connected well with their audience.
- She was very enthusiastic and was a lot of fun to listen to. Her presentation was also very informative and interesting.
- I thought that she was entertaining as well as informative. I was engaged in her presentation the whole time. She had great analogies and overall was a great program.
- She understands recruitment like no other person.
- She was engaging and entertaining and not at all boring to listen to. Her ideas and tips were extremely helpful! I thoroughly enjoyed her seminar!!
- I've heard her presentation twice though, so it would be nice if she could speak on something else. She would be great on teaching others how to speak.

- She put everything we do into perspective and really got me thinking about how my chapter works.
- Was amazing very entertaining and gave us some great ideas.
- We all felt incredibly energized and excited after her presentation.
- Awesome, excellent, and fantastic! well spoken, enthusiastic, enlightening (2)
- She had amazing interaction with the audience! Continued to keep it interesting and applicable to your own chapter (2)
- She is amazing. This was my second time seeing her and I still learned new things from her and she made it interesting and energetic.
- She was a very motivational speaker. She involved the audience and made it a lot more fun and exciting. She talked about stuff we could all relate to and really got all of my chapter's representatives thinking.
- She was really insightful and also very captivating as a speaker. I learned a lot from her. (2)
- Because she was energetic and interesting, she kept my attention-made their presentation upbeat.
- It was great hearing the simple advice she had to give us and how it could truly be implemented.
- They were very good at speaking and keeping everyone's attention.
- She was a very powerful speaker. A lot of times, speakers speak more about leadership than sorority experiences. She was very easy to relate to.
- She is very personable and funny; she made me realize our flaws with recruitment.
- Is very good at getting the crowd excited! She is motivational and she pumped us up for recruitment!
- She has a sparkling personality and is definitely meant to be a motivational speaker.
- She is a very gifted speaker and had wonderful information.
- I thought she was excellent and everyone could relate to what she was saying.
